THE CHIEF COMMANDANT,

To

The Secretary to the Government of Mysore,
Military Department.

SIR,

In forwarding herewith the accompanying Correspondence ending with docket No: 423 dated 22nd March 1900 from the Commandant, Imperial Service Regiment, (to be obligingly returned when done with) regarding the leave applied for by Writer N. Venkat Row of "B" Squadron Imperial Service Regiment, I have the honor to enquire what is to be done in cases like this when writers are entitled for privilege leave according to Civil Service Regulations and apply for the same.

According to Regimental's suggestion, the writer will lose a portion of his pay which seems rather hard on him. If another Squadron Writer acts for him during his absence, there is no provision in the Government Proceedings No: 1230-31/94 dated 4th/10th January 1900 for acting allowance.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your Most Obedient Servant,
J Desaraste

Sir,

With reference to your letter No 2188 of the 7th April 1900, I have the honor by direction to intimate that the personal allowance of writers on privilege leave should be paid to the man who acts for them; in other respects their pay will remain untouched.

2. The case of these men is not a very hard one as under the originalterms of enterbairment they would have been obliged to maintain a horse during their absence on leave.

* Enclosures returned.
